

PRIVACY STATEMENT

The Society for Healthcare Epidemiology of America (hereinafter SHEA) is committed to respecting the privacy of our online users. To protect your privacy, we provide this notice explaining our online information practices.

We collect no personally identifiable information unless it is voluntarily supplied by you. This statement explains under what circumstances we gather your individual information, how we use it, and who may access that information.

Information Collection and Use

We may collect and store information entered by you on our site, including, but not limited to, personally identifiable information such as your name, address, e-mail address, and telephone number. This information is collected in order to provide you with AMA PRA credit for participation in CME activities offered by SHEA. With specific permission from you, we may also use this information to notify you of additional CME offerings in the future. SHEA is the sole owner of the information collected on this site. We will not sell, share, or rent this information to others in any ways other than those disclosed in this statement.

Sharing

We partner with other parties to provide specific services such as activity registration. We will share names and other information that is necessary to allow the third parties to provide these services. The parties are not allowed to use personally identifiable information except for the purpose of providing the requested services.

Links

This web site contains links to other sites. Please be aware that SHEA is not responsible for the privacy practices of other sites. We encourage our users to be aware when they leave our site and to read the privacy statements on every web site at which they provide personally identifiable information. This privacy statement applies solely to information collected by this web site.

Security

SHEA uses physical and managerial procedures to attempt to safeguard your personally identifiable information; however, we cannot guarantee that it is completely secure from those who might attempt to evade security measures or intercept transmissions over the Internet.

Updates

This policy is effective as of April 30, 2010. As technology changes, this policy may need to change. SHEA will notify you of changes to this policy by posting the revised policy on this site. Your use of the site following any such change constitutes your agreement that all information collected from or about you through this site after the revised policy is posted will be subject to the terms of the revised policy.

Pending approval by the SHEA CME Steering Committee
